

TRIBUTE TO MOTHER.

.....C.....

"Mother's Day" is a step in the right direction. It serves as a guide post to a life, as an escort to the realm of love and life.

Can day ever be set apart for Mother is nice, indeed - a liberty of devotion and thoughtfulness; a companion with a heaven and the cross. But we should remember that there are three hundred and sixty-five days in the year and a single year is a mere shadow on the dial of time. Dear, my Mother, I can remember to Mother that her years may be jeweled with joy. God so intended, for Christ practiced it. Abraham Lincoln, who in every way was close to the Savior in thinking did it.

Every day of my life I write a letter to my Mother. I write her every day, no matter if it is only the one line: "I love you." I propose to continue this to my death, the lover that gave me birth permitting, and in the final moments I will know the remembrance of the fact will not be torn or torned. I have been in every town and city of this country; over Canada and through Mexico, and abroad, and from all these parts and cities I sent every day a letter to my Mother. For, hence I did this thinking that I was to only one, but on President Lincoln's death I learned that he did not die alone. His life others and his death? But a brave man and give the custom impetus. Let every body join. One day for Mother is mine, I say, but every day is better. The hand that rocks the cradle is the hand that rules the world. Mother is the grandest character of all, the grandest name in the language of men.

Do you ever stop to think of the teachings of Mother; that her advice and requests are keeping with the Sermon on the Mount; that the farther we stray from Mother the deeper in sin we go?

My way of settling all trouble, every question and everything, is the way that is in closest touch with Paradise-- the other's way. Mother can separate the dross from the gold in the crucible of love, can drive the clouds away and let the sunshine in. No one this side of the Sea of Chillee understands the Golden Rule as Mother. If I had the selection of a flower to grow and wear in honor of the Mothers living and in memory of those dead I'd choose the FOR-GOTTEN-ROSE. There can be only one sentiment for Mothers living and dead--boundless love for the living, sweetest remembrances for the dead.

Doc. Wendell. Columbus, Ohio.

"If we have no sorrows, liquor creates them," said Patterson, "and if we have them it increases them and makes them harder to bear."

"It blights the young man as lightning does the tree, and leaves him stripped of his heritage."

"It takes from middle age ambition and hope, and robs old age of its serenity and peace."

"It is the thief of character."

"It is the polluted stream which struggles with the current of public affairs, and poisons all it touches."

"Whenever it comes it brings sorrow and whenever it goes it leaves remorse."

"Going through life, I have seen it drag down many of the associates of my boyhood, blasting their hopes and consigning them to un-famous graves."

"I have seen its forked lightning strike my fast-born, the child of my youth's manhood, and I have wept with him the suffering, and tried to help him in his brave but soul-shaking melancholy struggle for a better life."

"But I have felt its foul and shameful glow as it turned upon me as a deadly and shaming wrath-- upon one who had pleaded before the world for its very existence."

In Judge Johnson's Court this afternoon James Darwin, the opium fiend who informed on Seabright and the Coby robbers, was given the full extent of the law—five years—for burglary in the second degree.
 To obtain money to satisfy his craving for opium, the prisoner burglarized a house of a lot of furniture, and while attempting to sell the stuff was arrested.
 He saved the county the expense of a trial by pleading guilty.
 This will be his second term in Folsom State Prison.

A Break for Liberty.

SAN RAPHAEL, December 12.-As Edward
 Smith and William Mc Carthy, two ex-convicts, were being taken to the County Jail after being sentenced to five months' imprisonment
 each for smuggling opium into San Quentin Prison, they made a desperate attempt to regain their liberty by breaking away from Constable Louis Hughes and running. After ten minutes' liberty and an exciting chase they were recaptured and conveyed to the County Jail.
